RAYMONDE GAUTHIER Ph.D. HISTORY, LAVAL UNIVERSITY

My genealogical research on fur trade goes from 1650 to 1830. Canadian Historians consider that the fur trade ended in 1830 because fur hats were no longer in style. At that time, most of the persons implicated came back from the territories situated west of the actual province of Ontario which was Hudson Bay territory . Others stayed where they were; they were, by that time, mostly Metis

The Bouchards are one of the most important families (in numbers) in Quebec aside from the Tremblay and the Roy. One of the reasons is that they were one of the first families to arrive and settle

Bouchard Family no 1 from which I removed a certain number of males who established their family near Quebec City, Ile d'Orleans, Charlevoix County and later The Saguenay, where mostly farmers except for Jean-Baptiste Bouchard/Dorval #37518 who married Antoinette Chouart linked to the Chouart/desGroseillers. His family was composed of 'coureurs des bois' and 'voyageurs' based in Montreal from where the canoes would leave Bouchard Family no 2 is the most interesting. Claude Bouchard/PetitClaude #57564 established his family on or near Ile d'Orleans. The first to leave this area was Amedee #45121 around 1776 who moved to Laprairie. This is the only family who lived in or around Laprairie, a big village on the south shore of the St-Laurent (Lachine is on the other side).

The villages of this region are: Laprairie, St-Philippe de Laprairie (or St-Jean-Francois-Regis, the Mohawk reserve) St-Edouard de Laprairie or d'Iberville, St-Jacques le Mineur, St-Constant, L'Acadie, St-Luc, St-Jean d'Iberville (same as St-Jean-sur-Richelieu) St-Athanase d'Iberville (or Iberville for short). Some will also got 'lost' in Montreal.
