PIONEER OF 1852 DEAD

Joseph K. Hardie Served in East Portland Council.

Joseph K. Hardie, a pioneer of 1852, and a well-known resident of this city, died early yesterday morning at his home, 280 Larrabee street, after an illness of three weeks. Mr. Hardie was born in Millsburg, Ill., in 1838, and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1852. The family first settled near Corvallis and then moved to Portland in 1862. Mr. Hardie lived for short periods at Salem and Bridal Veil, but Portland had been his home since 1862.

Mr. Hardie was connected with Weid-ler's sawmill as foreman for 18 years and also was employed for five years at Inman-Poulsen Company's sawmill. He served one term in the old City Council of East Portland before the cities' consolidation. Mr. Hardie was a member of Samaritan Lodge, I. O. O. F. and also was a member of the Bridal Veil Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Hardie is survived by his wife, to whom he was married 43 years ago, and the following children: Edward H. Hardie, Bridal Veil, Or.; Mrs. G. H. Nicolla, Molalla, Or.; Mrs. L. H. Vincent, Portland; Mrs. F. R. Smith, DePew, Ia.; Taylor H. Hardie, Astoria; Mrs. Edna Hardie McAyeal, Ruth and Hazel Hardie, Portland. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence, 280 Larrabee street.

SHE CROSSED THE PLAINS.

Mrs. Lilly, of Corvallis, an Early Pioneer, Passes Away.

CORVALLIS, Or., July 18.—Mrs. Lucinda A. Lilly, wife of S. N. Lilly, died at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at her home near this city, of cancer of the womb, after a long and painful illness. Mrs. Lilly was born July 28, 1844, in Missouri. At the age of 8 years, in company with her parents, she crossed the plains with an ox team, arriving in the Willamette valley in the fall of 1852, her father, Simon Hardy, having succumbed to a severe illness en route. In 1862 she was married to S. N. Lilly, and since that time resided on their ranch near this city. Her husband, three sons and four daughters survive her. She was an earnest worker in the order of the Eastern Star, which organization she has been a member of for a number of years. Mrs. Lilly was a devoted mother, an esteemed member of society, and beloved by all who knew her. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence.
