CROSSED THE PLAINS
IN PIONEER DAYS

Mrs. Ann M. Smith.

Lebanon, Or., Aug. 22.—Mrs. Ann M. Smith, pioneer, of this city, died at her home last Sunday morning at the age of 65 years. Although she had been in poor health for a year, her death was unexpected, and was the result of heart trouble.

Mrs. Smith was born in Missouri, January 14, 1849, and in 1855 crossed the plains with her parents by ox-team. She was married to Phillip M. Smith in early life, and to them were born seven children, three of whom survive. They are: Charles A. Smith, of Alberta, Canada; Mrs. George Buhl, of this city, and Mrs. Viola Hickok, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday morning by Rev. W. S. McCullagh at the Presbyterian church, of which she was a member.

Death of S. R. Claypool.

Hon. S. R. Claypool died at Lebanon yesterday morning, and Linn county loses a worthy citizen, one prominent in the upbuilding of the county.

He was born Aug. 28, 1836, in Indiana, and crossed the plains with his folks in 1846, first settling in Clackamas county, in 1848 coming to Linn county, afterwards his home. He was in the Indian wars of 1856, mined in California a couple of years. In 1865 he bought a farm near Lebanon, which he run until five or six years ago, when he moved to Lebanon. He was county commissioner for four years, 1886-90, was a member of the legislature in 1893, and was a school director for many years.

He leaves four children. Mrs. Edison Young and Mrs. John L. Griggs, Crabtree; Mrs. James Munsey and Miss Annie Claypool, Lebanon.
