MRS. NANCY HANSON DEAD

Oregon Pioneer of 1852 Passes
Away in This City.

Mrs. Nancy Hanson, wife of the late Hans Hanson, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Roberts, East Twenty-ninth and Taylor street, Monday afternoon, after a lingering illness of about one year. Mrs. Hanson was born in Henry County, Iowa, June 6, 1840. In 1852 her father and mother, James and Eliza Akin, with a large family, undertook the long and perilous journey across the plains to Oregon. The mother and youngest sister died on the journey and the father died one week after their arrival in Portland.

In 1856 she was married to Hans Hanson and they soon secured a home, buying 40 acres of land immediately east of Lone Fir Cemetery, later plating it as Hanson's Addition. Mr. Hanson died in 1892.

Three children were born of the union, Fred W. Hanson, Mrs. Ida Roberts and Edwin C. Hanson, all of whom were at Mrs. Hanson's bedside when she passed away. She is also survived by two brothers Dr. John L. Akin, of Albany, and Frank S. Akin, of this city, and one sister, Mrs. Caroline Hodges, of California.

Mrs. Hanson was an ideal mother and helpmate to her husband. She was a member of the Methodist Church from an early age.

Rev. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of Centenary Church, will conduct the funeral, which will be held from the home of her daughter, East Twenty-ninth and Taylor streets, tomorrow at 1:30 o'clock P. M.

MRS. FRANK S. AKIN DIES

Well-Known Portland Woman Fails to Recover From Operation.

Mrs. Frank S. Akin died suddenly during an operation performed at the North Pacific Sanitarium on Wednesday, June 1, at 12:30, after an illness of only a few weeks. Her maiden name was Laura Ellen Kline. Her parents were well-known Oregon pioneers, John L. Kline and Serena J. (Holt) Kline. The following biographical sketch was prepared by a friend: "Mrs. Akin was born January 11, 1850, in Greenfield, Mo., and came, with her parents, to Oregon in '53, when but two years of age. She was the youngest of the family, all of whom grew up in Oregon, and the three older sisters who survive are all well known in this city: Mrs. Francis Louise Poe, Mrs. Sarah Virginia Hill and Mrs. Abbie B. Moreland, now of Salem.

"On March 15, 1871, her marriage to Mr. Akin took place, and they have always resided in Portland. For 18 years she was a member of the Taylor-street Methodist Episcopal Church, until they became charter members of the Grace Church at its founding 25 years ago. Her husband and their four children all residing here, mourn the loss of a loving mother. Dr. Otis F. Akin, Mrs. Edward Drake, Mrs. Clarence True Wilson and Russel Kline Akin."

The funeral will be held on Saturday at 2 o'clock from the residence, but the services at Lone Fir Cemetery will be private.

F. S. AKIN SERIOUSLY ILL

NO HOPES HELD FOR RECOVERY OF PIONEER.

Third Stroke of Paralysis in Last Six Weeks Suffered—Advanced Age Is Handicap.

Stricken with paralysis yesterday afternoon. F. S. Akin, Portland pioneer of 1853, lies in a serious and unconscious condition at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Charles C. Petheram, 8 East Seventeenth street, North.

F. S. Akin, pioneer Portland resident, who is thought to be dying as a result of a paralytic stroke.

Yesterday's stroke was the third in the last six weeks, and because of Mr. Akin's advanced age, Dr. Petheram, who is caring for him, does not hold out hopes of recovery.

Mr. Akin, with his father, six brothers and sisters, arrived in Portland in 1853, after an overland trip across the plains. His mother died of hardships incident to the journey.

For the last 69 years Mr. Akin has made this city his home. Of late years, after he had retired from active business, Mr. Akin has made philanthropic work his hobby.

Mr. Akin is the father of two sons and two daughters, Dr. Otis Akin and Russell Akin, the latter of Gresham, Mrs. Edward Drake of Portland and Mrs. Clarence True Wilson of Washington. Mrs. Petheram, a daughter of Mrs. Wilson, is Mr. Akin's granddaughter.

F. S. AKIN, PIONEER, DIES

CAREER OF WELL-KNOWN
CITIZEN IS CLOSED.

Position of Secretary of Baby
Home Held for 31 Years;
Four Children Survive.

F. S. Akin, Portland pioneer of 1852, who was stricken with paralysis at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Charles C. Petheram, 8 East Seventeenth street North, several days ago, died early yesterday morning. His death had been expected by friends and relatives.

Mr. Akin, by reason of his work in fraternal and charitable circles, was one of the best-known citizens of the city. Crossing the plains in 1852, at an age of 10 years, he reached the west after a particularly hard and trying journey. His mother died on the trip. The father and six children settled in Portland and shortly afterward the father died, too.

For a number of years Mr. Akin has been connected with the United Artisans, serving as auditor from the time of its foundation. He was secretary of the baby home for 31 years, having been connected with that work since the founding of the institution until he resigned last winter.

Mr. Akin is survived by four children—Dr. Otis F. Akin, Russell K. Akin, Mrs. Clarence True Wilson and Mrs. Edward Drake. Eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive him.

Mr. Akin had been a member of local Methodist churches since he first reached the city. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Centenary-Wilbur church, Bishop W. O. Shepard and Rev. Charles MacCaughy officiating. Interment will be at Rose City Park cemetery.
