The G. A. R. post of Weston met Friday and re-elected the former officers. Arrangements were made to provide relief for a comrade, Coleman Winn, who lives way back in the mountains, and is reported to be in need of aid. For some unfathomed reason, Mr. Winn's pension was suspended by the government.

[The Athena Press, January 3, 1896]

Coleman Winn, the "Hermit of the Blues," who lives 28 miles east of Weston, came out on snowshoes and reported a depth of 5½ feet of snow at his cabin. One night the snowfall was 2½ feet, the greatest in 20 years.

[Oregon Daily Journal, January 12, 1905]

Coleman Winn is quite seriously ill, and there seems to be no sign of improvement.

[East Oregonian, September 27, 1907 p.6]

Coleman Winn, one of the old veterans, came down from his mountain home today to attend to his quarterly pension voucher.

PASSING OF HUGH HERRON.
— Revered Pioneer of Irish Bend. —
Funeral Held Sunday. —
His Life.

Death entered a happy home in southern Benton, Friday morning at 5:30 o'clock, and claimed the widely known and universally esteemed old pioneer, Hugh Herron, who had been a sufferer since last March with cancer of the stomach. The news reached Corvallis a few hours later, and many an eye was wet and all hearts were touched when it became known that the end had come.

The funeral was held at McFarland's chapel, near Monroe, at 11 o'clock Sunday forenoon, the services being conducted by Rev. C. L. McCausland of the M. E. church, South, of this city. There was a very large attendance at the funeral, neighbors and friends coming for many miles to pay their last respects and mingle their tears with those who mourn a husband, father and old friend. The services were most impressive, and a mixed choir rendered beautiful music.

Hugh Herron was born in County Down, Ireland, in September, 1839. He was the youngest of a family of eight children, six boys and two girls, and his father died when he was a small boy. In 1850 the family came to America, settling first in Ohio but going later to Illinois. In 1862 Hugh Herron crossed the plains to Oregon, coming directly to Benton county, where he purchased 320 acres of land, 15 miles south of the present city of Corvallis. In 1865 he was married to Miss Nicy H. Winn, at Monroe, and the young people took up their residence on the homestead at Irish Bend. Mr. Herron added to his holdings year by year, being a careful business man and a good manager, until at the time of his demise he owned 800 acres of Benton county's choicest soil.

Throughout the entire course of his life Hugh Herron was known far and near not only as a public-spirited, progressive citizen, but also as a high-minded, honorable, moral man, one of Nature's noblemen, of whom no evil was ever spoken. Few men live as blameless a life as did this grand old gentleman, of whom his sons say "He was almost a perfect man." In his passing the family's loss is beyond compare, while the neighborhood, county and state loses one of its best and most desirable citizens.

The immediate survivors are the widow and the following children: Emery Herron, South Bend, Wash.; Robert, who lives on a part of the old home place; Clayton, who occupies the old home; Mrs. C. A. Bushnell, of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Margaret who is with her mother at the Robert Herron home. Another daughter, Lizzie, is deceased.

The sympathy of the community and of all Corvallis is extended those who mourn.
