"On State Street, about a half mile west of the intersection of State and 119th Street, on the brow of a rather steep cultivated field, is a tall oak tree, a lone sentinel in that field. Beneath the tree, it has been said, is an early grave of a male member of the Short family, as of now unidentified. This area can readily be seen from Mt. Hope Cemetery, north of State Street on 119th.

This property was owned by Rev. John Wesley Short by 1870, being part of the Theophilus Powell Donation Land Claim. Rev. Short had a Donation Land Claim in Linn County, as did his father-in-law, Christian Clymer." [Marion County Cemetery Records by Daraleen Wade, Vol 1 p. 145]

REV. JOHN WESLEY SHORT—1853

(Source: Scrap-book of Sarah C. Downing, Salem, Oregon.)

John Wesley Short was born in Sussex county, Delaware, on August 23, 1816. A fairly good education was acquired by him while living in Philadelphia and while there he also learned the carpenter trade.

When he reached the age of 19 years he started out on his own merits, going as far west as Burlington, Iowa, then the western metropolis, where he plied his trade.

At the age of 22 years he married Mary Ann Clymer. This was in 1838. They lived for a time on a tract of land which Mr. Short had purchased, or until he became imbued with the desire to go to the western coast.

Early in March of 1853 we find these good folk launching out on the Oregon trail, equipped with two ox teams of five yoke each, one horse and seven cows. Two wagons held their belongings. At this time, besides Mr. Short and his wife, were their six children.

When first they arrived in the Willamette Valley, they settled in Linn county, eight miles southeast of Albany, but in 1860 returned to Marion county, where they continued to reside in the McAlpin district of the Waldo hills.

At the age of 17 years Mr. Short united with the Methodist church. After he moved to Burlington, Iowa, he joined the Baptist denomination and began to preach.

He was fully ordained to preach at Sublimity, Marion county, after his arrival in Oregon, and continued in this work as long as his health allowed him.

He faithfully preached at country churches and schoolhouses throughout Marion county, and especially were his services given at the McAlpin church, in his neighborhood. The writer will remember this Baptist minister, as she often sat under his preaching. He was of medium build with a wealth of dark whiskers, that later on whitened with the years. Naught but good could be said of this grand old man.

He became a successful farmer along with his ministerial duties and accumulated a farm of 740 acres during his long life. His wife died in 1895. Mr. Short died in 1902, aged 86 years, eleven months. The children of this worthy pair are:

- Jacob, who married Jane Hawse.
- William, who married Miss Owens.
- Emma (Jones).
- Susan (Smith).
- Jane (Hinshaw).
- Sarah (Williams).
- Catherine (Adams).

"Passing of Rev. Short--Pioneer Baptist Minister Died at His Home at Macleay Early Yesterday Morning--Came to Oregon by Ox Team a Half Century Ago--Will be Buried in Warren Cemetery--Rev. J.W. Short died at the home of his grandson, J.F. Short, in the Waldo Hills yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, aged 86 years, 11 months and 13 days. The remains will be buried at the Warren cemetery tomorrow (Sunday) at 11 a.m.

John Wesley Short was born in Sussex county, Delaware, August 23, 1816. He was educated in Philadelphia and afterward learned the carpenter trade in the same city. At the age of nineteen he began life on his own account. From Philadelphia he went to Burlington, Iowa, where he worked at his trade for a short time. In 1838, at the age of 22, he was married to Mary Ann Clymer, and they lived on a tract of land he had previously purchased until 1853. In March of that year he started across the plains with ox teams and arrived in Oregon August 4, 1853. His outfit consisted of two ox teams, five yokes each, one horse, seven cows and two wagons. The family consisted of his wife and six children.

He settled in Linn county, eight miles southeast of Albany, where he remained until 1860. From that place he removed to Marion county and located in the Waldo Hills where he lived to the time of his death.

Mr. Short became a Christian at the age of 17 years and united with the Methodist church. After going to Iowa, he united with the Baptist church and began to preach. He was ordained to the full work of the ministry at Sublimity, Oregon, and remained a faithful worker as long as his health would permit.

Besides his work in the ministry, he was a successful farmer and had accumulated considerable property, most of it being in land of which he owned 740 acres.

His wife passed away in 1895. The surviving members of his family are Wm. Short, Salem; Mrs. Emma Jones, Jefferson; Mrs. Susan Smith, Drain; Mrs. Jane Hinshaw, Goldendale, Wash.; Supt. G.W. Jones of the State School for the Blind, and C.H. Jones, editor of the Oregon Teacher's Monthly, both of this city, are grandsons of the deceased." Daily Oregon Statesman, June 7, 192 p. 6 c2-3

"Died--At the family home in the Waldo Hills, eight miles east of Salem, Wednesday, December 25, 1895, Mrs. J.W. Short, aged 73 years, 11 months and 8 days.

She was the wife of Rev. J.W. Short and came to Oregon in 1852, locating first near Oak creek, Linn county, and later in Marion county.

The funeral will take place in the Warren cemetery." [Daily Oregon Statesman, December 27, 1895 p5c4]

LINN PIONEER OF '52 DIES

Silas William Pastor of Tallman
Baptist Church 42 Years.

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 16.—(Special)—
Silas Williams, resident of Linn county continuously since he crossed the plains to Oregon in 1852, died today at his farm eight miles southeast of Albany, aged 55 years.

For the past 56 years he had resided practically all of the time on the farm where he died. For the past 42 years he had served as pastor of the primitive Baptist church at Tallman, performing his ministerial duties in addition to managing his farm. He organized and established this church in the village of Tallman, near which his farm is situated.

Mr. Williams was born in Missouri and crossed the plains to Oregon when 18 years old. He located in Linn county. In 1856 he served in the Rogue river Indian war, being a member of company B, 2d regiment, Oregon mounted volunteers.

He is survived by three children: Mrs. Addie Short, who resided with him at his farm home; Mrs. Clara Ross of Albany and Edward D. Williams of Portland.

OBITUARY

William Short was born Nov. 4, 1849 in Demons county, Iowa. He crossed the plains with his parents in 1858 and has been a resident of Oregon ever since. He was baptized in the Christian faith at the age of 16 and has remained a member of the Baptist church for 58 years.

Mr. Short was married to Miss Lutitia Owens of Marion county. To this union were born seven children: Horace W. Short, Salem; Wayland H. Short, Aberdeen, Wash.; Ray Short, Pratum, Or.; D. M. Short, Oregon City; Lola Vivian Eoff, Shelton, Wash.; Garfield Short, Portland, and Goldie B. Doncaster, Portland. He leaves his widow, all of his children and 25 grandchildren and three great grandchildren and three sisters, Mrs. Kate Adams of Goldendale, Wash.; Mrs. Jane Henshaw of White Salmon, Wash.; Mrs. Susan Smith of Sutherlin, Or. and friends to mourn his loss. He was the son of Rev. J. W. Short of the Waldo Hills, one of Oregon's pioneer Baptist ministers, long since gone to his reward. He was ordained to the ministry by his church over 30 years ago and has kept the faith and remained true to his trust until the summons came. He departed this life November 25, 1923. Funeral services were held from Webbs Funeral Parlors November 27. Rev. Charles Short of Dallas officiating.

"Died--At her home near Macleay, on Jan. 29th, of typhoid pneumonia, Mrs. Ellen Jones, wife of Thomas Jones, and daughter of Rev. J.W. Short, aged 34 years, 1 month and 1 day.

Since the commencement of her blooming girlhood, deceased has lived in the community where she died, and was extensively known, and universally respected. In her late illness she had the unwearied attention of her husband, relatives, friends, and three skillful physicians, and for the fortnight she hovered close down by the brink of the Sullen River, waiting for the great decision that was to restore her to her husband and children, or waft her weary spirit to the mystic precinct beyond the invisible veil. Her character in all its phases, as developed by the varied experiences of life's accumulating trials was worthy of universal emulation. For more than eight years I have lived a near neighbor to her and her husband, and I am sure this estimate of her character will be heartily concurred in by all who knew her. She certainly had not an enemy in the world, and if a good character in this life insures happiness in the one to come, the change to her has certainly been one of permanent gain. T.T. Geer." Tunis T. Hinshaw.

WHITE SALMON, Wash., Oct. 11.- (Special.)-The passing of another well-known Klickitat county pioneer was commemorated yesterday in the Methodist Episcopal church when funeral services were conducted by Rev. Earl McAbee for Tunis T. Hinshaw, 75, who died October 6 at his residence here, where he had lived since 1911.

Mr. Hinshaw was born in Indiana in 1857 and settled near Goldendale in 1878. He is survived by his widow seven daughters, Mrs. R. D. Gray, Salem, Or.; Mrs. B. H. DeYoe, Seattle; Mrs. Roy H. Cain, White Salmon; Mrs. E. R. Hodson, Mrs. William Schramm and Miss Alice Hinshaw, all of Portland, and Mrs. D. T. Coughlin, St. Helens, and one son, Ernest T. Hinshaw of San Francisco; also two sisters, Mrs. Laura Wright of Portland and Mrs. W. E. White of Newburg, Or.

[Morning Oregonian, Portland, Oregon, Wednesday, October 12, 1932 p.3]

"Klickitat Resident, 42 years, Passes--Mrs. Lucinda Jane Hinshaw was born in Marion county, Oregon, Jan. 29, 1861 and passed away at her home in White Salmon on December 4, 1935 at the age of 74 years, 10 months, and 5 days.

On October 31, 1883 she was united in marriage to Tunis T. Hinshaw at the home of her parents, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Short. She located with her husband in Klickitat county, residing in and near Goldendale until 1911 at which time she moved, with her family to White Salmon, where she had since made her home. Her husband preceded her in death on October 6, 1932.

To this union were born ten children, all of whom survive, excepting the first born (twins) who died in infancy.

She leaves the following son and daughters: Earnest T. Hinshaw, San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. R.D. (Lelia) Grey, Salem, Ore.; Mrs. B.H.(Mabel) De Yoe, Seattle; Mrs. Roy H. (Mary) Cain, White Salmon; Mrs. E.R.(Laurie) Hodson and Mrs. W.C. (Hazel)Schramm, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. D.T. (Agnes) Coughlin, St. Helens, Ore.; and Mrs. Frank (Alice) Withey, Spokane. Keith McCoy and 10 other grandchildren survive; also one sister, Mrs. Susan Smith of Drain, Ore.

For many years she has been an invalid, but through it all was a gentle, patient sufferer who held fast to her faith in God embraced early in life. She has since gone to her rest and the deep grief of her family bespeaks better than words, of the love, sacrifice, and devotion to those near and dear to her.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Stout, from the M.E. church, at White Salmon, Friday, Dec. 6th, at 2 p.m., followed by interment in the I.O.O.F. cemetery." [The Klickitat County Agriculturist, Goldendale, Washington, December 20, 1935 p. 4]
