NORTHWEST DEAD.

Luke Booth, of Yamhill County.

AMITY, Or., Feb. 26.—Luke, son of John and Sarah Booth, who died at his home in Yamhill County, February 14, was born in Lancashire, England, May 15, 1817. He came to America with his father and mother in 1830, and resided in and near New York City until 1836, when they left for the then far-off West, via New Orleans and St. Louis, leaving St. Louis November 20, 1836, for Fort Des Moines, on the Mississippi River, 12 miles above Keokuk, where his father died September 9, 1838. He united with the Methodist church when a young man, and remained a member for more than three-score years. He was married March 6, 1842, to Miss Phoebe McClintock, who still survives him. Ten children were born into their home, three having died in early life. The other six sons and one daughter still live. He moved to Oregon with ox teams in 1852, and settled in Yamhill County, where he has resided for more than a half-century. He was well known throughout this county as a pious, honest, good citizen. He died on his wife's 84th birthday. His funeral was largely attended, and was conducted by Rev. T. L. Jones, who had been his pastor more than a quarter of a century ago.
