OBITUARY.

Lucinda Hall was born in Kentucky in April 1811 (exact date is uncertain as the records were lost and her memory did not serve her correctly for the last few years).

Her maiden name was Lucinda Robinette. She was married to Thomas Hall in Boon county, Missouri. Ten children were born unto them of which all but two have crossed over "the river of death to try the realities of an unknown future," unknown only by faith in the Word of God. The Christian is satisfied with what God has revealed in his word hence not unknown to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall crossed the plains in 1847 coming to Oregon.

They first stopped near Oregon City. Then moved near Brownsville where they took up their old donation claim. From there they went to Benton county and about 30 years ago settled where Saginaw now is, and soon after coming here 25 years ago Thomas Hall died. She has lived a widow ever since and labored hard for her own and her children's support.

Mrs. Hall died March 9, 1899, and was buried at Saginaw, Oregon.
